good smells calm and attract us while bad smells repel us and cause painful skin rashes in humans and animals

“they help with social interaction, academic efficiency and accuracy, and they may reduce impulsive aggression.”

prevention said that about 6.1 million females, which is about 10 percent of all women in the united